APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

International Society of Anthroposophic Naturopathy (ISAN)

I hereby apply for personal membership as:

- Active member (the active membership requires certification by the ISAN in anthroposophic naturopathy [in accordance with the certification guidelines and the core curriculum], and includes membership in the „Section in the factual field of anthroposophic naturopathy“¹ and within the General Anthroposophical Society.)²

Annual membership fee for active membership 241 CHF (subject to change by ISAN)

- Passive member (alternative practitioner candidate / naturopath in training)
Passive member (non-certified naturopath, but member of a national professional association recognized by the ISAN).

Current annual membership fee for passive membership 198 CHF (subject to change by ISAN)

- Support member. Support members pay an annual contribution at its own discretion, but at least 65 CHF (subject to change by ISAN)

Start of membership: _____

I agree to immediately report changes in status from being Naturopath in Training to being a registered Naturopath.

Please attach the following information to the application:

- completed application form
- completed SEPA procedure form
- permit-certificate of the health department (in copy)
- confirmation of establishment as a naturopath (in copy)
- certificates of qualifications of the methods used (for example, acupuncture, classical homeopathy, dark field therapy, client-centered therapy)

¹ “The members can join together to form smaller or larger groups in any local or factual field” (Founding Statute of the Anthroposophical Society from 1923, § 11).

² The certified anthroposophic naturopath recognizes its spiritual center, the Free University of Spiritual Science at the Goetheanum, through his / her regular membership in the General Anthroposophical Society. He / she bases his / her work on the mission statement of the Anthroposophic Naturopaths.

He / she undertakes to work in the future on the further development of his / her qualification as an anthroposophic naturopath in the sense of the mission statement and the legal provisions. He / she practices anthroposophic naturopathy.
